Artist Call

The Aurora Cultural Arts District seeks original, 2-Dimensional artworks by artists from Aurora and the surrounding metro areas. The exhibition will showcase artistic excellence in the city by bringing cultural values and traditions passed down from previous generations. We seek diversity in materials, subject matter, artists, and the stories they are telling. The objective is to tell the untold stories of the many cultures and immigrants through visuals while enhancing Aurora's cultural identity.

The theme is "Cultural Reflections" to highlight our community's cultural heritage.

This initiative aims to diversify our public art collection by exhibiting and selling artwork from artists in all stages of their careers. The project is open to all artists residing in Aurora and the surrounding metro area. Although this initiative is open to all artists, special consideration shall be given to artists who identify as members of a Native American tribe or are a refugee.

Infinite boundaries: A physical language

October 7th, 2022

Part of the Day of Jubilee (First Friday) series.

A FREE public showing of a new exhibit of original abstract paintings and photographs by Kayla Raine. I am focusing on shape, form, and texture.

About the exhibit:

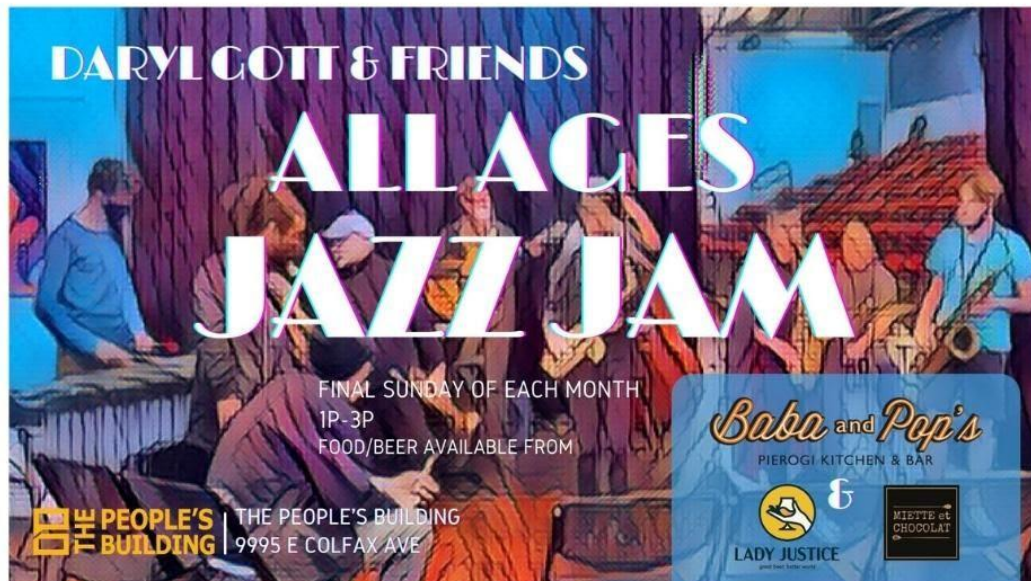

This exhibit is my attempt to understand and express myself and (more importantly) the world around me as I encounter it. You'll see small and large portals of energy, emotion, and movement through images and paintings. I encourage you to use your imagination as you encounter each wall, as each has its own message and energy. The more I've learned about the infinite nature of our world, the more I've wanted to document it. This is my language, without words.

About the artist:

Kayla Armstrong (born in 1994 in Jacksonville, FL) is a self-taught painter and photographer.

As a child, she was always learning how to sketch from her mother and got her start in photography, shooting film back in 2011. Kayla opened her photography business in 2013 and continued shooting and sketching through her early 20s. In 2018, she decided to start painting and photographing more abstract works and hasn't looked back. She showcases her work online and in gallery spaces all around Colorado.

Futurity

October 13th & 27th, 2022

Music by César Alvarez with The Lisps

Lyrics and Book by César Alvarez

Directed by Helen R. Murray

Colorado Premiere

THURSDAYS OCT. 13TH & 27TH ARE 10 A.M.
STUDENT MATINEES ONLY—NO EVENING
PERFORMANCES ON THESE TWO THURSDAYS.

Expressions of violence seem to be ever-present these days. But what if there were another way? A better way? What if we could generate world peace with the flip of a switch? Futurity, the new folk-rock musical by César Alvarez and The Lisps, imagines such a world. At the height of the Civil War, a soldier named Julian Munro joined forces with inventor and mathematician Ada Lovelace to invent the machine that created peace. It is a story about the power of imagination combined with ingenuity and the importance of dreaming up the impossible. This hit show enjoyed an extended run by popular demand when it first premiered and proposes that music and storytelling are the machines that might create peace.

Content Advisory: Appropriate for ages 10 and up and contains some artistic depictions of war and soldiers dying.

Runtime: Approx. 90 minutes plus one 15-minute intermission
